

Get Meaningful Experience at Self-Help Credit Union!

Build your skills and make a difference at a community focused credit union.

Apply for our paid internship program today!

- 10-week program: May 22 - July 28
- Open to graduate and undergraduate students
- Meaningful, in-depth experience
- Robust, cohort-based program with structured learning opportunities
- Nonprofit and mission-driven organization
- Focus on community development and financial services

Learn more and apply: www.self-help.org/internships

Since 1980, Self-Help has been working with communities to help create and protect ownership and economic opportunity for all. We do it through fair financial services; community development lending programs; community-centered real estate development; and research, analysis and policy advocacy. If you're passionate about social and economic justice and want to help create an economic system that works for everyone, Self-Help might be the perfect place for you. Get in touch!

